TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

Rome, May 15th—In the course of a debate in the Chamber of Deputies, the Premier, the Marquis di Riduni, categorically repeated that the only object of the Triple Alliance was to maintain peace in Europe.

London, May 15th—The diplomatic negotiations between England and Portugal on the African question have ended in a friendly arrangement based on mutual concessions

THE IMPENDING CRISIS.

There has been no crisis up to the present worth talking of, but we are on the eve of a very trying one, the consequences of which no man can foresee. Congress is called upon to choose one of two courses, to liquidate the State Banks or to issue Argentine Assignats by hundreds of millions. In either case a crisis is inevitable.

If it be resolved to liquidate the State banks there are thousands of depositors who will be reduced to great straits until the liquidation be concluded. This operation may last 12 months or longer, and in the end the depositors may only receive 50 or 60 per cent. of their money, the Nat. Government giving public bonds for the remainder. The parties indebted to the banks will probably consider their fate still harder, as a general process of bankruptcy must take place, in which their properties will be sold at one-fourth of the fictitious value at present put on them.

But, if Congress resolve to re-open the State-banks on June 1st this can only be done by a new issue of shinplasters, giving the Provincial and the National Bank each 100 millions to enable them to pay depositors.

It may be seriously doubted whether 200 millions would suffice to enable the said banks to continue their career of "utility." The Finance Minister for the Province of Buenos Ayres confesses that the Provincial Bank acts as the Treasury of the Government. Governor Costa estimates the revenue of the Province at 10 millions currency, and as the expenditure last year reached 28 millions (exclusive of payments for London debt) there is likely to be a deficit of 18 millions which can only be covered by "utilizing" the funds of the Provincial Bank to the extent of 18 millions.

Then again there is the Municipality, the revenue of which in 1890 amounted 7,550,000$, and the expenditure to 26,440,000$, leaving a deficit of 19 millions, which must in like manner be met by "utilizing" the National Bank. So many purposes of "utility" must be a serious drain on the two State banks, and it is quite possible that in March 1892 we may have another "feria" or suspension of all business for 5 days or even longer, to enable the National Government to devise suitable plans for providing a remedy.

This second form of crisis will be much worse than the first, as it will demand a continuous issue of shinplasters. At present it is rumoured that Congress intends an issue of 500 millions, which would raise the amount of currency to 760 millions. This would indeed seem ample for all purposes, but as each issue will cause a corresponding depreciation the pressure a year hence will be as great as at present.

Some people venture to think that an issue of 500 millions, as rumoured, would be excessive. They are quite right, because we are already suffering from a plethora of paper-money, and even to issue another million of shinplasters would be nothing short of madness. To issue 500 millions is, therefore, to condense 500 acts of folly into one, and to hasten the Republic on a mad career of ruin.

Every fresh issue is only adding to the general conflagration; it may postpone the day of reckoning by a few months, but the ultimate result must be a crisis of which there has been no parallel since that of France in the last century.

THE BOYS' ORPHANAGE.

Buenos Ayres counts from to-day another charitable institution. A month has barely elapsed since the first meeting of ladies took place at the Irish Convent, and to-day St. Anthony's School opens its doors to receive 30 orphan boys. This is really a great achievement, and we cordially congratulate the dozen ladies of our city to whom is due the fulfilment of a purpose so long desired. It was the aim of Father Anthony Fahy during the latter years of his life, but he did not live to see it realized. Nevertheless the wish of his heart was a kind of legacy to those who loved his name for the immense services that he had rendered to the Irish community, and hence it has been resolved to make the Boys' Orphanage associated with his memory.

Some have proposed to call it the Fahy Orphanage, others St. Anthony's School for Boys, and under either title it will be a lasting memorial of the venerable Don Antonio. Father Fahy, it may be well to mention, came to Buenos Ayres in 1843. He founded the Irish Convent in 1856, and in subsequent years paid for the education in All Hallows Missionary college of several young men who afterwards became Irish chaplains in this province. He watched over the spiritual and temporal interests of his countrymen during 28 years with the ability of a Richelieu or a Ximenes. In 1864 Archbishop Escalada made him a Canon, and in 1865 the Irish residents offered him a present of £1,000 sterling, which he declined, the money being then devoted towards paying for a wing of the Irish Convent.

He died of yellow-fever in the terrible epidemic of 1871, so poor that Mr. Armstrong and five other friends had to pay for his funeral and other expenses. Such was the man whose virtues and services it is now proposed to commemorate in the Boys Orphanage. His loss was a blow from which, after twenty years, the Irish community has not yet recovered. He was not merely their chaplain and friend, but their statesman, protector and good genius. The influence that he exercised over his countrymen was wholly for good: he labored incessantly to impress on them the wisdom of cultivating kindly relations with their Scotch and English neighbors, as also with the people of the country. He promoted education and improvement in every form, and rightly believed that sheep farming was the soundest business in the country.

If he could re-visit the scene of his labors and assist at the opening of St. Anthony's school he would say that he considered himself amply rewarded for his 28 years of unremitting work by the satisfaction of seeing the Boys' Orphanage at last a reality.

The institution, as we said on Thursday, is located in a building contiguous to the college of the Vincentian Fathers in Calle Cochabamba. The Rev. Father Gray of that community takes a lively interest, and so does the Very Rev. Father Superior, in the Orphanage. An arrangement has been made with the Vincentians for two years, and we believe it is intended ultimately to move the Institute to quarters of its own, under the care of some religious order.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

FRESH ISSUES OF PAPER MONEY.

Some people advocate on very plausible reasons an issue of paper money to overcome the difficulties against which we are struggling. This is apparently the simplest means at hand; it is one of our traditional expedients, and is no novelty in our financial records. Few care to study the favourable and unfavourable effects of such a remedy, but if those who preach such means were to do so, they would begin to doubt its efficacy.

The scarcity of money we witness arises from several causes: from the depreciation of the currency which calls for double the ordinary amount of money in commercial and industrial transactions; from the great disturbance in the circulation turning money from its normal channels, principally from the State banks, the great dispensers of credit; from the deep distrust that prevents the return of money into deposit. Add to this the shrinkage of personal credit and the heavy reserves that the private banks must hoard to meet any emergency that might arise out of the present dangerous situation, and you will find the explanation why the bank-note is scarce in spite of the large total of issue.

A fresh issue, at least one to a considerable amount, would it remove these causes? Would it appreciate the value of the currency and reduce the amounts now necessary for commercial or industrial transactions? Would it revive confidence in the Banks and urge depositors to return the amounts they have withdrawn? Would it revive personal credit now so languishing owing to the enormous losses sustained? Would it render unnecessary the reserves of the private banks? Certainly not; in the majority of cases it would produce the contrary effect and would aggravate the evil.

Studying the question in another light, it might be argued that an issue of limited amount, destined exclusively to producers to foment production, after causing immediate injury, would compensate that damage with the development or increase of the production thereby favored. But it happens in our case that such is not the object of a fresh issue. What is demanded to help production is a mere flea-bite; the principal object of an issue of paper is to enable the State banks to meet the drain on their deposits; furthermore, the sum total of the deposits of these banks reaches an enormous amount, and it would be necessary to issue notes to that full amount, for any shortage would increase the run on the Banks; all would rush to secure their deposits. What would depositors of these banks do with their money? They would deposit same in the private banks, at least within the limits allowed by them, or the money would go to private deposits to increase thereby the stagnation of money or provoke a further metallizing process in fear of greater depreciation of the currency.

What benefits would trade in general derive? Little or none; for the private banks are essentially commercial banks in which the prudent and rapid turn-over prevents them from lending to farmers on easy terms and at long dates. Nothing in this line could be expected from private discounters with whom money may be deposited by those who no longer trust the State Banks, which are in part the great Savings Banks. What would the Banks gain? Their deposits would disappear; they would be burdened with the enormous debt of the fresh issues; their sphere of action would be reduced to a liquidation of their portfolios; in fact, their banking existence would be at an end, for they could look forward to nothing but a final and ruinous liquidation.

Meantime, what would be the disastrous effects of a fresh issue of paper money? An issue to meet those amounts required by the State Banks would entail a steady depreciation of the currency till it reached nearly a worthless value. Those who deny this effect of a fresh issue presume that their individual views are superior to the most ordinary economical principles, that an inconvertible currency, lacking guarantee, will increase in value as it increases in quantity: with such ideas we might resort to daily unlimited issues of these new and marvellous assignats.

The increasing depreciation of the currency ruins commerce and increases the risks in operations; it enhances the cost of living to such an extent that it becomes next to impossible even for the well-to-do classes; it defeats all normal financing in Government, as there is no firm basis for the budget of expenditure; it increases to an enormous amount the duties on imports and reduces all other sources of revenue; it entails an increase in salaries and expenses of the nation; a fresh issue is synonymous with disorder, discredit, ruin and misery.

Can those who have forfeited their credit or are burdened with debts hope for a moment that their credit would be improved or that their debts would be reduced by the mere fact of a fresh issue of paper money? Do they expect that the fresh issue would be again applied to advances the effects of which are still injuring the country? Their situation has no outlet; with such hopes they may cherish an illusion, but nothing more.

As an excuse for a fresh issue, the example of other countries is invoked, especially that of the United States with its famous greenbacks; but the advocates of paper money do not pause to see the disparity of conditions. In the case of a great war, when the State to save national honor or maintain national integrity, must call upon direct and large resources, when loans are out of the question, then only could there be a plea for the issue of banknotes, which is a proportional tax on all the inhabitants of the country to defend the State. It is a debt that the State creates with a promise of redemption; it is a burden that must be borne, because industry, credit, commerce, and the whole economic fabric of the nation are affected by war. After the war both production and taxation enable the State to redeem that debt, as happened in the United States after the war of the Union and in France after the late great war.

But in our midst the State does not issue paper to make up for delays in the collection of taxes and to meet urgent and necessary expenses. Some people call on the Government to issue paper in the midst of peace, to pay the obligations of banks or help their debtors; in other words such advocates wish to burden the country with an enormous tax to help a portion of the community, very deserving no doubt, but certainly with no claims for such a sacrifice.

The causes of the crisis are rooted principally in the great commercial centres, for they were the hotbed of speculation. Meantime, the rural districts are not hurt, they are in full development of their production; in the camps of Buenos Ayres, Santa Fe and Entre Rios, in the sugar plantations of Tucuman, in the vine districts of Mendoza and San Juan there is great prosperity.

I have dwelt at length on this paper money question, as I have been accused of hastening the collapse of the Banks, a charge launched by a purely opposition, but I cannot overlook the gravity of same and I take this opportunity to refute it.

I recognize in all patriotic aspirations, but none can be more interested in the matter than the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, on whom such serious responsibilities weigh. I am more anxious than anybody else to find a solution for our financial evils, yet I should think it presumption on my part to attempt to enforce my ideas on an assumption that they are the right ones; but it cannot be expected that I shall support or accept any measure until I am convinced that such a measure is efficient and not injurious.

LADIES' LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, March 28.

The best match made up to the present by any Fifth Avenue belle has been the marriage of Miss Garner, of New York, with the Marquis de Breteuil. He is no mushroon marquis, nor is he a marquis "sans terre." Under Louis XIV. no one was allowed to ride in any of the royal carriages whose nobility did not date from the fourteenth century. The de Breteuils were qualified for a royal gift. One ancestor during seventeen years was master of the ceremonies to Louis XIV.; another filled the "important function" of handing His Majesty his pocket-handkerchief to complete the royal toilette. The family is related to the "créme de la créme" of the French aristocracy, and the marquis himself is hail-fellow well-met with the summit-members of the international nobility. It only remains with the marchioness to open the most brilliant of salons (the age of the salon is not past) Paris has witnessed since the eighteenth century. Miss Garner was won, and wed, at Pau; let American girls make a note of that—in every sense—happy hunting ground.

There are many globe-trotters who maintain that Italian is superior to French cookery. The latter is classed as laborious, the former as light, and the lightness is attributed to the greater delicacy of the olive oil of Italy, and no where so perceptible as in fish preparations. To uphold the fair fame of French cookery a special school has just been opened by Senator Jules Simon in the Rue Bonaparte, where all modern notions and scientific principles will be united to practical work. Lectures on food and the chemistry of its actions will be delivered, and diplomas given to competent pupils. A similar establishment will be opened for girls. A short time ago a head-inspector visited one of the leading normal female colleges. The best class was called up for examination. He said he would give them a subject to write upon. The girls expected history, biography, geography, &c. After a moment's silence he proposed for essay the making of a mutton hash. It was a bolt from the blue; out of 22 girls composing the class only one attempted the subject, and did her work admirably. Such is the origin of the decision, that in all the female training colleges henceforth cookery-hash of mutton knowledge is to be included among the standards.

Holy Week is an important time for the Queent-Regent of Spain. On Thursday she washes the feet—touches them with a moist napkin—of a dozen carefully hygienized beggars, on Good Friday she commutes the death penalty on seven culprits. These acts are preceded by the reception of a select number of the nobilty, who are candidates for the honour of keeping their hats on in presence of royalty. Each aspirant for the honour reads a document setting forth the history of his family and titles, and proof of loyality to the throne. The sovereign then thanks the applicant, invites him to be seated and to put his hat on. In China the Emperor rewards Mandarins with a peacock's feather. To be able to squat on the lowest step of the Spanish throne provokes as much heart burnings as did formerly the struggle for a 'tabouret' among the great duchesses at Versailles.

French society objects to the very common-sense practice of depositing a cheque in the "corbeille de mariage" in place of a locket, satin pumps, or a muff etc. The French forget that was a custom peculiar to themselves in the eighteenth century, when, on the eve of the wedding as relatives and friends were criticising the bride's presents, a collection was made among the company, to form a purse for the bridegroom, who handed it to the bride after she had signed the marriage deed. It was common then to be married at midnight by those able to defray the expense. The French might also return to the good old plan of a substantial wedding breakfast: at present all is barren in this respect as from Dan to Beersheba. Before the bride flew away on her short honeymoon formerly she presented each lady guest with a fan and a sac of bonbons. Sweets to the sweet, farewell.

Curious coincidence. The day Prince Napoleon was interred at Superga, his illegitimate sister's remains were transferred to the new convent vault, at Issy. She entered, when very young, the Convent of the Augustines; Prince Napoleon visited her regularly; in 1873, he called on her as usual; she had hardly entered the reception room, when she fell dead in his arms. The vault where the nuns were interred, in the Oiseaux cemetery, being too small, the remains of 80 sœurs have just been transferred to Issy.

Spring dress materials are in grey woollens, trimmed with black or dark blue velvet and jet beads. Light grey India cashmere, or beige of a whiter shade, are also favorite season stuffs. woollens exact much variety in shape, and especially in trimming. The bottom of the robe-round with a slight train, has generally three rows of velvet of different widths. These are also to be met with robes in foulard, silk and tulle.

Ball dresses are in white damask, silk muslin of contrasting shades and white faille. Shape either princess or short and round. The corsage is round and terminates in a sash of white satin; the V. low-body is still in favor. Much lace trimming ornaments the corsage and the shoulders. Some toilettes display gold braiding, and the muslin tissues are frequently embroidered.

For town wear, the tailor costume is in vogue and cobalt blue woollen, with gold braiding, has many admirers; a white silk plaited chemise, with upright collar, accompanies this shape. Plum colored silk, with jet embroidery, has admirers. Dresses are close fitting, not by the robe but by the jupon.

Bonnets tend to become smaller and evidently some bizarre shapes are promised. Capotes, for example, threaten to become pyramidial like oriental head dresses. They are composed of pearl embroidery, or gilt beads or velvet bows and lace, with strings of same velvet knotting under the chin. Round hats are smaller. Toques are now worn during promenades as well as at the theatre, etc.; they are made in cloth and velvet; colors, the softest shades of carnation, green and rose; trimming, black feathers, jet etc; the bonnet is now more forward than hitherto. When the ornament is a bird, the wings are spread out, butterfly like, and the tail is too open as a fan.

Respecting mantles, carricks and vestes, there is nothing typical. Vestes are generally in velvet with jet ornamentation. There seems to be no limit to the employment of jet; it is put everywhere, even on light dresses; but it possesses elegance and originality. Bonnet pins are very rich, veritable pieces of artistic jewellery; even clasps for corsages are gem-work.

CONGRESS.

At the sitting of the Deputies yesterday, Deputy Gilbert sent in a bill providing for the issue of 200 million Internal Bonds, with 6 % interest and 20 % amortization per annum. This issue to be made through the Caja de Conversion; these bonds to be handed to the Free Banks, in return for values and bills of their portfolios, at 85 per cent. Every bill handed by the Free Banks must bear either two signatures or have guarantee of real-estate that yields return; no renewals to be allowed unless 20 per cent amortization is paid per annum and the ordinary rate of interest. The Caja de Conversion to provide for the service of the bonds with the proceeds of the interest and amortization accruing from the bills handed in by the banks; should these not suffice the Government shall meet the deficiency with the general revenue of the nation, on the understanding that the Caja de Conversion will reimburse the Government when in a position to do so. The National Bank and Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres to pay their depositors in these bonds at 85%; 15 per cent of said deposits to be paid in each case in banknotes. Debtors to the banks may close their accounts in these bonds at the same rate. The bonds to be received at par by the Government in payment of National lands, of overdue taxes and all official fines. The Banks are to collect for account of the Caja de Conversion the interest and amortization accruing on bills handed to the Caja in exchange for the bonds.

After the reading of the above Bill and a few preliminary remarks by its framer, Deputy Gilbert, it was sent to Committee.

Another bill was presented by Srs. V. M. Molina and G. A. Dominguez which provides for the payment of all duties and taxes collectable in gold in paper at a figure not exceeding 300. The Customs' Laws to be altered as follows: refined sugar to pay 5 centavos per kilo, unrefined sugar 3 cents: coffee 4 cents for kilo: kerosene 3 cents per litre: tea 15 cents per kilo: spirits below 30 degrees 8 cents per litre: rice 5 per cent ad valorem; oil 10 per cent ad valorem; ordinary wine in casks 5 cents per litre: candles 10 cents per kilo: flour free. The internal duty on alcohols to be reduced to 6 cents per litre.

Sres Macia, F. Gilbert and L. M. Gonnet presented a series of resolutions for the government of the House.

A Bill presented by Sr. V. M. Molina exonerating from fines all those who pay their "contribucion directa" within 90 days after the bill becomes law was referred to the Budget Committee.

MONTEVIDEO.

(From the "Montevideo Times.")

A few days ago we mentioned that Sr. Arias, the veteran commissary of Santa Lucia, had been shot dead by a man whom he was trying to arrest. The capture of the assassin has brought to light other crimes in which other persons are implicated. The murderer is an Italian named Leonardo Alema, aged 22 or 23, and decently dressed. He has confessed that he shot the commissary because he had on him at the time a quantity of false silver coins. He had been accompanied as far as Canclones by an accomplice named Juan Miguel Burse, whose part it was to utter the coins. The latter has been arrested, and on Tuesday the police succeeded in capturing at La Union a mysterious individual of bad antecedents named Arturo Ricci, believed to be the forger of the coins, as dies and other apparatus were found in his possession. He has refused to give an account of himself. It is suspected that there are others in the gang, and the police are pursuing enquiries. It is not known how much, if any, of the false money has got into circulation. It is also thought that this gang had relations with the coiners who were arrested in Buenos Aires not long ago.

The Direction of Health has approved and published an ordinance ordering that the "algibes" or rain water wells in all lodging houses, public and private schools, asylums and charitable institutions, without exception, shall be emptied within ten days from date. Private or other houses the well-water of which contains organic substances or ammonia in excessive quantities, or in which the existence of the typhogenic bacillus is proved, must be emptied within five days after notification of the same. The Direction of Health will have the emptied wells inspected, and should they not prove imperfect will authorise their being again put in use. Should they require repair, a report and statement of the repairs required will be furnished. In case of the existence of the typhogenic bacillus being proved, the well will be disinfected according to directions to be issued by the Board. Proprietors of houses are made responsible for the observance of this ordinance and in case of infraction fines of $10 and $20 will be imposed.

The above regulations may seem rather arbitrary, but are fully justified by the present alarming state of public health, and we certainly recommend their strict observance. It is only by strict attention to sanitary rules that an epidemic can be checked, and wells are always a source of danger.

In the Chamber of Representatives, on Tuesday, a Message was received from the Executive with a Bill for joining in one the laws of Stamps and Stamped Paper. Referred to the Committee of Finance.

A discussion then arose about the reduction of 10 per cent in the salaries of the Deputies, as decreed by the preceding Chamber last December. Sr Zorilla considered that the reduction required the ratification of the new Chamber. He also wished to know if the Deputies could consider themselves at liberty to apply the 10 per cent thus deducted as they pleased. Sr Tavolara admitted that the reduction required ratification, and added that the 10 per cent deducted was intended for the public treasury. Sr. Zorilla thought that the reduction being really a voluntary donation, each Deputy might devote the share corresponding to him to such public service as he chose. After some further discussion, Sr. Ros moved that the reduction be ratified by the Chamber, the 10 per cent deducted being devoted to the public treasury. This motion wes approved by 46 votes to 1, the dissentient being Sr. Arivallaga. Several Deputios did not vote.

The report of the Committee of Legislation on the Bills of Sres. Aguirre and C. M. Ramirez, for the reform of the Departmental Boards, was then brought forward. It appeared that the Bills could not be discussed as they were blocked by a similar Bill, sanctioned by both Chambers in 1887, but which the Executive had returned to be considered in General Assembly, and which had not been so considered. After some discussion as to the constitutional mode of procedure in such a case, it was resolved to postpone consideration of the Bills until the General Assembly had resolved on the Bill of 1887.

The Bill opening the port of Nuevo Berlin for Customs purposes was approved in general without debate. The discussion in detail following, some difference arose over the terms of the first article, which it was decided to leave until the next sitting. The sitting then concluded.

The Siglo states that it has strong reasons for believing that despite the crisis, the revenue for the financial year concluding next month would exceed the estimated amount, were it not that the collection of the property tax is nearly a million dollars in arrears. At the same time a heavy discount must be allowed for the arrears in the railway guarantees, the payment of the local estimates, and the falling off in the Customs revenue.

The same paper adds that it has heard in official circles that the Message which will accompany the Budget to the Chambers will reveal to the public the exact and real state of the national finances without circumlocution or mystification. We shall be curious to see this document.

SACKCLOTH AND ASHES FOR THE 25th OF MAY.

Buenos Ayres,
May 14th.

Mr. Editor,

Surely your correspondent "A lay brother" cannot seriously mean us all to "convert what should be a day of exultation and pride into one of humiliation and fasting?"

Isn't there enough "humiliation and fasting" already going on to please him? I can vouch for the "fasting" at any rate. What have we done to incur the humiliation? Because times are out of joint through sins of commission and omission on the part of our rulers should not we rather rejoice and be glad that one day at least is to pass pleasantly. Let the rulers and Councillors be humiliated and be made to fast by any means available (I am afraid I see none); but we at any rate have had no hand in bringing things to the present state. We all should rather take to heart the two old fashioned but quite applicable mottoes: "God helps those who help themselves" and "T's a poor heart that never rejoices." The nation's financial affairs are in a woeful condition, but is it right to ask the Almighty to intervene in questions of that sort? Disease or long continued drought would be different. Clergymen surely will not adopt the narrow views incalculated by "A lay brother," who may be a good fellow enough, but has singular, not to say very weak, ideas on the subject in question.

One of the people.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Sr. Fay, the Accountant of the N.R. office, has drawn up a very able and voluminous report on three points on which the office is at variance with the Argentine Great Western. He first combats the right of the Company to increase their charges by adding to the scale originally authorised, 75 per cent of the premium on gold, and in support of his argument cites the decrees of the 25th June 1890 and 16th August 1890. He next complains that the Company have been claiming kilometrage on wagons as if they had been 2nd class carriages, the rate for the latter (eight wheels) being $1.60 per kilometre, whilst that for the former (eight wheels) is $1 only. The third point is that, whereas the Company, according to Sr. Fay, is bound to carry Government employees and troops by both ordinary and special trains at a reduction of 50 per cent, and their luggage and baggage at a reduction of 25 per cent upon the tariff, the Company claim that the reduction is only applicable to ordinary trains. Sr. Fay concludes by stating that the amount due to the Company by the Government for special trains is $531.70 and not $2990.80 as claimed.

The Local Board of the Pacific Railway have submitted to the Engineers' Department for approval plans and specimens of new material for permanent way "up to date". It appears that the Company have received 15 hilometres of these "fin de siecle" rails, which, if approved, are destined to be used on the line near the Capital where the traffic is heaviest.

Sr. M. Gonzalez has petitioned the Minister of the Interior for a junction and siding between kils. 48 and 49 on the Transandine line, so as to facilitate the working of a stone quarry. He says the stone is as good as that imported from Europe, and that it has already been used for the Transandine Station at Mendoza.

The North East Argentine has taken a step which not only merits the thanks of all farmers and others in the district traversed by it, but is worthy of emulation on the part of the other lines. Until further notice this Company will charge from 25 to 50 per cent of the increase in freight caused by the premium on gold less than the amount authorised by law. No monopoly will be given, but the reduction will be made to all consignors of not less than one wagon load. In order to keep within the provisions of the law, a special contract must be made for each consignment, but this can be effected by a simple exchange of letters.

The Chief of the Public Works Department has forwarded to the Minister of the Interior his usual monthly report from which we extract the following:—

Nanducita—Presidente Line. The works are paralysed since June 1890.

Bahia Blanca North Western. The works on this line have progressed very slowly since December last, the working staff being reduced from 995 to 377.

San Cristobal—Tucuman line. The works are being regularly proceeded with.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Gold Eagle smoothed his wrinkled front yesterday a trifle; but this did not remove from the phizes of the general public that "solemne espectativa," woebegone grin they have worn so long. The most important news of the day was that the Provincial Bank will probably be some how kept on its tottering legs, but the conditions are not such as to cause its depositors to go "off their heads" with "entusiasmo delirante."

It appears that the Southern Railway have lately issued a regulation prohibiting vendors of newspapers from pursuing their avocation on their trains, to the inconvenience of their passengers and great damage to a deserving class of hard working men and boys who have always taken season tickets on the line so as to follow their calling without damaging the Company. The matter should at once be looked into.

We feel much pleasure in saluting and wishing success to the newest passenger in the Editorial Bus, La Tribuna, an evening paper in the able hands of our distinguished colleague Don Agustin de Vedia.

Another dead-alive business is reported from Patagones, where, on Friday last, as a coffin was being lowered into the grave in the cemetery, a voice within it cried out "No more of this humbug!" and the corpse, with a vigorous kick, sent the lid flying, and sat up grinning at his mourners, who ran away yelling with terror. It turned out that the man in the coffin was only dead—drunk.

There will be a Charity "Paseo" or Garden Party to-morrow in the well-known quinta of Mr. Eugene Perez del Cerro, and the kind hearted of all nationalities in that fashionable quarter are expected to attend. The receipts will be distributed to the poor on the 25th. The names of the Lady Patronesses are too numerous for us to publish, but they certainly mean success for this very "simpatica fiesta."

We received the following yesterday:—

"Dear STANDARD,

"Permit us to correct an adverse impression which is likely to be formed by the readers of your issue of 13th inst. regarding the speed of the Argentine torpedo boats now arriving. These boats came from London under sail, and are not built for sailing, but happily they have all so far arrived in safety. The last boat tried, the "Thorne," did in one hour 24½ measured miles. By inserting this you will oblige

"Yours faithfully
"Johnston & Co."

The Rosario papers continue to report a tidal wave of crime in that place, which has now secured for itself the unenviable title of "The City of Crimes." Seeing the long list of all kinds of crimes and offences—from manslaughter to pitch-and toss—in the local papers, the new name for old Rosario seems only too well deserved.

We were favoured yesterday with the sections of the magnificent "Atlas de la Republica Argentina" representing Chubut and Santa Cruz Territories and Catamarca province. This Atlas, which is drawn by Dr. Arturo Seelstrang, for the Argentine Geographical Institute, is a splendid specimen of map-making.

The smell of fresh paint may be overcome, or at least mitigated, by sprinkling hay with water in which chloride of lime has been mixed and placing upon the floor. Also oil paintings may be cleaned by wiping over with a sponge dipped in warm beer, and when thoroughly dry washed with a solution of finest gum dragon dissolved in pure water.

A Municipal meat stall will be opened to-morrow morning in the Mercado Modelo. That in the La Plata market is doing a daily increasing business, and the meat sold is excellent. But, alas! this new effort of the Lord Mayor to cheapen meat for the poor has led to the same result as the ever-famous Patriotic Loan for the Provincial Bank. In suburbs, or outlying parts of town, through some rascally combination of the butchers, the price of meat has risen! The Municipal markets are wanted at Barracas, the Boca, Palermo, Retiro, Almagro, etc., where the poorer class of citizens reside, rather than in the centre of town. There is always some confounded, stupid blunder mixed up with the best intentions of the authorities in this unfortunate country.

We have received some correspondence with reference to a paragraph in our issue of the 13th about the Loa Bridge. The par. in question was taken from a New York paper, but we forgot to say so. One of our correspondents, a merry cuss, suggests that, with the exception of the height above sea level all the figures should be divided by ten. He adds that, in these days, in inflation (query!) 900 per cent premium can be easily swallowed.

We are asked to call the attention of the English residents of Belgrano to the change of hour of the afternoon service to-morrow at St. Lawrence's Chapel, which has been made in order that the solemn services of the Festival may not be hindered by press of time. The services of St. John's will, of course, be of the usual festival order and, as will be seen from our "Church Notices," the Bishop of the Falkland Islands will officiate.

If we could induce the Czar of Russia and Prince of Wales to turn their business attention to this country, it might help us out of the crisis. We find the following interesting paragraph in the Mexican Financier:—"With the Czar of Russia buying a cotton plantation in the American State of Louisiana and the Prince of Wales holding an interest in a cattle ranch in Chihuahua, there is suggested the idea that, after all, men of the Royal caste are sometimes good men of business. The Czar is the greatest land-owner in the world. The Czar wishes to introduce American modes of cotton culture into his central Asian domains, and to that end will induce some Louisiana planters to settle there, taking with them their negroes. The Czar's representative in Louisiana is Mr. Edward M. Goujon, master of horse to his Imperial Majesty."

The Lord Mayor's profound financial measure for increasing the tram fares by two cents for the benefit of the city's extenuated revenue is likely to go to the wall, as even the easy-going City Fathers can see that it would injure the tramways without replenishing the municipal till to any appreciable extent.

The circular just issued by the Immigration Office to Argentine Consuls abroad, urging them to stimulate the emigration of the "proper kind" of people to this country, reveals two points of interest: 1st, that the great exodus from this country of late is almost wholly of the riff-raff, whilst those who remain and the few who still continue to arrive are respectable families who come out to friends here; and 2d, that there is a second exodus from this city to the provinces, where thousands have lately found employment through the Labour Office.

The Club de Residentes Estrangeros will give a dinner on the 20th inst. to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary, and in honour of the surviving foundation members, Mr. Hugo Bunge, Mr. Buttner and M. Francois. No invitations are being issued, and members desirous of taking part will have to notify the manager before the 18th inst. This Club is the oldest one in this country, and perhaps in South America. Although it is no longer exclusively foreign, it still represents the elite of our commercial community, and we feel pleasure in congratulating the members on its Jubilee. Long may it flourish.

The Cleary dramatic company sailed from England yesterday in the Iberia. Having first to astonish the Brazilians and Orientales, they won't be here till the end of August, so there is time for touching up swallow-tails, etc.

We are glad to read the following paragraph in the Montevideo Times:—"The many friends of Mr. E. D. Greenwood, suffering from a severe attack of small-pox, will be pleased to hear that he had a decided turn for the better at noon yesterday; and there is now strong hope of his recovery."

The oldest French resident in Montevideo, Dr. Pierre Leonard, is dead. He lived in the Uruguayan capital for half a century, and had been a surgeon in the French navy.

The Oriental gunboat Suarez is coming here on the 25th to salute the Argentine flag, in return for the liberal expenditure of gunpowder there on the 25th of August last by the Argentine cruiser Patagonia.

. . . I consider that no estancia which has any stock worth giving medicines to ought to be without these medicines.
The GASEOUS FLUID is the very best colic medicine I have ever seen given to horses, and the RED DRENCH for any illness after foaling or calving or lambing is, I consider splendid.
Yours truly,

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, May 15.
The solution of the banking question is reported to be a "fait accompli" at last, and although the firmness of the gold market to-day would seem to intimate that implicit reliance on the plan proposed and confidence in the future are out of practical range, there seems to be a consensus of opinion is favour of the scheme. The latter is, in brief, to reorganize the National Bank with a new charter and new capital, to confine the operations of the Provincial Bank solely to the province of Buenos Aires, and give it at the same time a moratorium for a stated time for the payment of its deposits. In the meantime, the depositors would receive certificates for the amount of their deposits, which would be legal tender for all Provincial obligations, and bear at the same time a moderate interest and high amortization. There would be thus no further emission and no "curso forzoso." It may be questioned if the plan would work, and if the depositors would accept the certificates, but as against this it may be urged that this plan was put in practice by the Maua Bank in Montevideo, and to such good purpose that in two years the certificates had all been paid off. Why should it, therefore, not work with the Provincial Bank, which, in spite of everything, still commands a high degree of credit, and if two years be not considered sufficient time to amortize the certificates, the term could be increased as may be considered fit. The National Government, it may be added, looks on the idea with a favourable eye.
Business at the first hour was marked by an unflinching firmness of gold and palpable weakness of stocks. The ounce opened at 63.20 and soared up to 63.90 almost immediately, when it touched top limit, reacting at the close to 63.40, at which it closed with buyers. In Cedulas only a meagre business was done, and rates were in a collapsing mood, the L and P typical series dropping to 45.80 and 38.5A respectively. A few small lots of National Bank shares changed hands at 33, but both Catalinas and Constructors were tottering at 7.70 and 5.30, the lowest rates yet touched. A small lot of Spanish Bank shares changed hands at 91, also marking a fall, being about two points under last sale effected.

Our London exchanges to 18th ult report a smart drop averaging about 3 points in all Argentine values on the London exchange, due to the advance in the gold premium here and the unfavorable impression created by the refusal of the Union Civica to chime in with the Mitre-Roca combination. The impression also that we were in for another issue of paper, or at best an issue of metallic notes, tended to react unfavourably on everything Argentine, and, as the premium has since advanced some 40 points, it is easy to imagine the "slump" in Argentine values which our colleagues so frequently chronicle. To apply the situation in all its nakedness is now before them, and, except that it may be aggravated by palliatives, there is nothing now to expect or dread. No telegrams have been received since 8th inst of the quotations of our stocks in London, and it will be interesting to note in the next cable the fluctuations that have taken place.

The R.M.S. Moselle left Rio yesterday for the Plate.

The steamer Citta di Napoli left Genoa on the 12th inst. with 1000 passengers for Rio and the Plate.

The steamer Ferndene, Houlder line, has arrived in port from Middlesbro' with 3000 tons of cargo.

The steamer Zeta, of the same line, has arrived with 2200 tons of cargo from Newport.

The Custom House receipts to-day were as follows :—

	m/n
Imports	$121,721.28
Exports	76,405.24
	$198,126.52

One of the most important lawsuits ever brought before an Argentine Tribunal is approaching its end. In an action brought by Don Antonio Pelaez against the Great Central South American Railway to recover the trifle of over 5 million of francs, the embargo placed on the Company's property has been removed.

The following were the prices current in the meat and produce markets yesterday:—

	m/n		m/n
Special bullocks, meat and tallow	28.00	to	35.00
First pick, do. do.	19.00		20.00
Second pick, do. do.	9.00		13.00

The following sales have been effected for account of the Banco Constructor de La Plata: By Messrs. Ramella & Co., 26 lots in Calle San Juan, 83,495 m/n; by Marasso & Co., two blocks in the Boca, 103,997 m/n and a house in Calle Brown, Boca, for 45,000 m/n, making a grand total of 232,491 dols. cash handed to Mr. P. Gartland to amortize the amount due him by the bank. The auction of 6th inst. realized 81,836 dollars in Obligations, and another will be held on the 20th inst of 25 squares in the La Plata port, receiving payment in Obligations at par. Later on, we understand, the bank's property in Bahia Blanca will be also brought to the hammer and the issue of Obligations thus further reduced.

At the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of the Banco Nacional Inmobiliario, which took place yesterday, it was resolved to reduce the banking capital to 14 million dollars and the mortgage capital to 2½ millions, the 50 per cent scrip to be considered as shares. Some other slight reforms were carried, and the election of the syndic proceeded with, resulting in Mr. Gmo. Torres being named, after which the business came to a close.

The following is the balance-sheet of the National Bank up to 31st of March':

WOLSELEY SHEEP SHEARING MACHINE COMPANY LIMITED.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no quer a darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquier oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastim duras sanan facilmente, y se ha en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publi idad que gusten.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous medin and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co', Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Choiera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Convlction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION,—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the Story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Befare of Piracy and Imitations.

At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL, there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Potros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.

Nearest Station (under a league from the Estancia) EMPALME PEREIRA F.C. a La Plata from whence animals can be despatched to any part of the Republic.

Animals of the same breeds are obtainable at the Estancia La Favorita. Apply to the Mayodomo, Almacen La Suiza, Carrera Tandil a Necochea, or to Hotel Dhees, Tandil; also at Estancia Santa Catalina. Apply Mayordomo, San Jose de la Esquina, F.C.O.S. Rosario.
